PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Our gracious God, we thank Thee that Thou didst create us with the capacity of communing with Thee, and to realize the wisdom of observing the advice of the poetic writer who said,

"Speak to Him, thou, for He hears thee;
And spirit with Spirit can meet.
Closer is He than breathing,
And nearer than hands or feet."

We thank Thee that as we come in contact with Thee in prayer an uplift comes to us and an incentive to nobler living.

We ask for Thy grace and guidance, that we may perform our duties aright this day. Amen.

COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE STATE-AID INSTITUTIONS.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House: On Monday night I offered a resolution which was turned down at that time. In presenting this resolution I want to state to the members of this House that I am just as much opposed to commissions of investigation as any member of this House, and that I have no axe to grind in this matter.

It has come to my attention since I have been a member of this Legislature that we are spending vast sums of money without the proper information as to how it is spent and no returns made. In presenting this resolution I have asked for a joint commission to study the subject of the funds appropriated to State-aid institutions. In the past bi-annum we appropriated in this House the round sum of $27,000,000 and this year the recommendations are for approximately $35,000,000. In checking over some of the returns from these institutions, while the reports are complete that have been turned in on these funds, still there is no evidence there how the funds have been spent, in what way, in what manner, and I am only asking this because many of my constituents have hit right back at us as legislators for coming into this House and throwing out vast sums of money without any restrictions on them, and also because of reports coming to me that in these State-aid institutions many and many a charitable case has been turned down because they have no money to pay their bills. I am asking in this resolution for a joint commission to study into the matter for the next two years so that a complete understanding may be had as to what we are going to get for the $35,000,000 to be spent. I ask the unanimous vote of this House for its adoption.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate adoption.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives,
March 20, 1929.

Whereas, There exist in this Commonwealth a large number of privately owned and controlled hospitals and homes of a charitable or semi-charitable nature, and which are the recipients of financial aid from this Commonwealth and are therefore termed State aid institutions; and

Whereas, Although millions of dollars are appropriated at every session of the General Assembly to such institutions, there is little control over such institutions by the Government of this Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint two Senators and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint three Members of the House of Representatives, who, together with the Secretary of the Department of Welfare, ex-officio, shall constitute a commission to investigate the hospitals and homes in this Commonwealth receiving State aid, as to the control, operation, percentage of free or charitable service rendered, and need for State aid by such institutions. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed the actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties, and be it

Resolved, That said commissioners shall make a full report in writing to a General Assembly which shall convene in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, on or before the first day of February of said year, and be it further

Resolved, That the expenses of the commission shall be paid from an item inserted in the General Appropriation Law to the Department of Welfare. The said expenses shall be paid on warrants duly signed by the chairman of the commission and approved by the Auditor General.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate adoption of the resolution? Is there objection?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House: I thought up to some time ago that I would be the last one to interfere with requests that are being made in this House for commissions to investigate, but if we don't soon put a halt to the appointment of these commissions we are going to have them running around in this Commonwealth so numerous that they will be colliding with each other and we wont know what to do with them all. It seems to me that this House should have sufficient confidence in its appropriations committee; it seems to me that this House should have sufficient confidence in the various auditing committees that are sent out to investigate and audit these hospitals. Not only that but before any money is paid to any of these hospitals, the managers, the surgeons, the trustees are called in here to give an account of their stewardship. Are we going to countenance continuous hindrances and annoying tactics in these institutions? If we are then we had better confess that we have no faith in the trustees that are being appointed to oversee these institutions; that we have no faith in the directors; that we have no faith in the business management; that we have no faith in the surgeons. I, for one, am bitterly opposed to the appointment of this commission, believing it to be absolutely needless, being uncalled for, and being not needed in any sense. I oppose unanimous consent, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and the unanimous consent is not granted.

Ordered, That the resolution lie over for printing.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would explain to the members of the House that the printery that is doing the work for the House is very badly congested now. They claim it will require continuous work, both night and day, to have the work that is now in their hands available for the House on Monday night of next week. The matter of reading bills for the first time would still further congest and embarrass that situation. In other words, it is a question whether we will gain ultimately under the conditions existing in the printing establishment.

Mr. SPANGLER. The defeat of one bill and the enactment of the rest of the bills would not in any way interfere with the general road program, as I understand it?

Mr. GRIFFITH. It would not nullify it. It would interfere with the program as laid down but it would not affect the other bills.

Mr. SPANGLER. Do I understand that it is the desire of the Committee on Highways to have all of these bills passed?

Mr. GRIFFITH. It is.

Mr. SPANGLER. It represents the opinion of the Committee?

Mr. GRIFFITH. All of these bills were put out by regular action of the Committee. They were selected first by the subcommittee and brought before the general committee and reported out in due form.

Mr. SPANGLER. Do these bills that the gentleman has fixed as special orders constitute the full set of highway bills in this Legislature?

Mr. GRIFFITH. No; there are other highway bills that will be out, but they don't have any connection with this program which we have laid down.

Mr. SPANGLER. These nine bbills you speak about virtually represent the highway program of the House, all these bills we are to consider together on Monday night as on special order?

Mr. GRIFFITH. Yes.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Indiana?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. GRIFFITH. Surely, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, it was stated that these bills were authorized by the committee to be put on special order. Now, I don't recollect of the committee having passed a resolutioin to put them on special order.

Mr. GRIFFITH. It did.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. I must have been absent; I don't think I missed one committee meeting.

Mr. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman misunderstood me. There is not a bill on this list but what has been voted out of committee after due consideration.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. That is true. What I asked was, did the committee authorize these bills to be put on special order or did the sub-committee?

Mr. GRIFFITH. Yes.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. If they did, I was not there.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Clerk to give us a list of these bills that have been made a special order, these highway bills.

Mr. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we will get out a letter explaining every one of these bills so that every member of the House will have it on file or on his desk on Monday night.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York asks for information at this time and the Chair feels the gentleman is entitled to the information. The Clerk will read the list of the bills so that the members may have an opportunity between now and Monday night for a careful study of all of these bills.

The CLERK. House Bill No. 1755, taking over borough streets.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Indiana.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. GRIFFITH. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, if it happens that the bill I presented Monday evening gets out of committee and I succeed in pursuading the members of the House that that bill of mine is an extraordinary bill, and in my opinion it is, will this special order interfere with that bill?

Mr. GRIFFITH. It will not.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will explain to the member from Beaver, that if he introduces his bill on Monday night, it cannot conflict with the special order.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, my bill was put in last Monday night but it is still lingering.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will inform the gentleman from Beaver that a bill that is still lingering will not interfere with the special orders.

SENATE.

MONDAY, March 25, 1929.

The Senate met at 9 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou God of the Ages, we thank Thee that Thou art ever mindful of us, that Thou didst hold us in constant remembrance, that Thou art ever true to Thy covenant with mankind, granting to them seed time and harvest as long as the world endures.

We thank Thee for the return of Spring. After this earth was locked in the slumbers of winter Thou didst open the gates of a new life to it.

We thank Thee for the glad season of Eastertide, and of the Passover that is just before us, suggestive to us that under Thy providential direction we can have release from all forms of slavish oppression and have the desires of our immortal spirits ratified in Thee.

We pray that every winter of hardship and suffering and discontentment and heartache and bereavement may be turned to Spring. May we realize that in Thee we have a hope of a brighter tomorrow; and grant that we may do that which lies in our power to usher in that better day. Amen.

Schantz,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendment, in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 683, on final passage postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to control, regulate and license the sale, possession and carrying of pistols, revolvers, machine guns, automatic rifles, automatic shot guns and riot guns; to prohibit the manufacture, sale, possession or carrying of certain other dangerous firearms, weapons and substances within this State; to prohibit the possession and use of silencers; to provide for confiscation and destruction of certain weapons in certain cases; to prohibit the ownership or possession of certain weapons by certain classes of persons; providing for licenses to persons, to possess or carry concealed pistols, revolvers, machine guns and automatic rifles, automatic shot guns and riot guns; to provide for license and registration of dealers in pistols and revolvers and regulation of sales thereunder; requiring persons in possession of pistols and revolvers and certain other firearms to apply for licenses; providing for costs of licenses to individuals and dealers; to prescribe penalties for commission of certain crimes while armed with certain weapons; and penalties or other violations of this act and increased penalties for repeated violations thereof: to repeal all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, in order that we may all know what we are voting on, this is the Firearms Bill—an old friend of ours—before us for its final passage or its ultimate defeat, I don't know which.

This bill bears my name, as being the sponsor of it, but this bill no more belongs to me than it belongs to any other member of the Senate. It is either a good bill for the State of Pennsylvania or it is not a good bill at all. It is a bill that has been recommended by the Crimes Commission—not this very bill, but a bill was recommended by the Crimes Commission, and that bill, as presented at this session of the Legislature, was regarded as being too stringent, too severe; so, subsequently, we presented in the Senate the bill which had been introduced two years ago, and Senator Buckman, Senator Aron and another Senator, whose name I forget, went over the bill and tried to correct it so it might meet with the approval of all. I think on final passage the bill was lost by one vote.

There is no question that something must be done with regard to the situation in Philadelphia, and particularly in all the big cities; and when all the big cities are becoming interested in a proposition like this, I feel that the members from the country districts are going to be big enough to give us a lift.

If you go over the legislation of years past, when members from the rural districts came in with legislation that was particularly interesting to those rural districts, and when the rural members wanted the support for something in their districts they found they had support from Philadelphia and other large cities.

This legislation is needed not only in Philadelphia but also in the coal regions and other centers of population. In those localities they need this legislation much more than they may think.

Now, there is no great hardship in this bill as it is now on the calendar, and as it will be on the statute books if it should be passed tonight. The attorney for the Conservation Council of Philadelphia, Mr. Grover Ladner, was on the floor and he spoke also for Mr. Fox, of Philadelphia, former district attorney, and he said that the amendments made to this bill in the House were perfectly satisfactory.

Now, the situation is a very severe one and there is no great hardship in this bill for anyone. If a man wants to carry a gun, he gets a license every five years at a cost of fifty cents. Now, a man that wants to go hunting must have a license to hunt, and while he is there getting his license to go hunting he can surely get his license for the carrying of a gun. If he wants to go fishing, he must have a license to fish; and while he is getting a license to permit him to go fishing, he can also get a license for his gun. So there is nothing severe in this bill, and it is not any more important to me than it is to any other member of the Senate; and it is only important to me because, as a citizen of a big city, I see what is going on every day and I will name only a couple of instances to show what such a statute on the statute books, years ago, would have prevented.

In the city of Philadelphia there was a young man by the name of Gustine, from a family prominent in Philadelphia. He was a young boy of 17 or 18 years of age, the only son of a very prominent man in Philadelphia. He attended high school. One day three boys came along with a machine they had gotten somewhere to take a joy ride. Before going on this ride one of them thought they ought to have a small revolver, and as they were going by a certain place they saw the automobile of young Gustine, and they thought it was a better machine than they had; so they got out of their own machine and got into Gustine's machine and started away. The young boy was in the corridor of the school house and saw what was happening and ran out and got on the running board, and as he was on the running board one boy, the boy that had the gun, started to flash it on young Gustine, trying to frighten him off—and the gun exploded and he was killed. As a result of the death of this one boy the other three boys were sent to the penitentiary, one to serve a life sentence, and the other two to serve twenty years each

Of course, there was nothing against Gustine—he was a high grade boy. The other three boys were not what you would call bad boys; they were mischievous. But had it not been for the proposition of this one boy to get this gun, those three lives would not have been ruined and the one life lost.

The other day a man came home and had an argument with his wife, and he went across the street to a pawn shop and pawned his overcoat and got a gun, after which he came back and shot his wife. That man is in the Eastern Penitentiary now serving a term of twenty years.

This bill is designed not so much for the preventing bandits and hold-up people from killing men as it is for stopping fairly respectable people from getting into trouble; because if they could not get these guns as readily as they can now—within half an hour if they have the money—many of these crimes would not be committed. Many of these crimes are committed on the spur of the moment, in anger; whereas, if these people had a few moments to think these things over these crimes would not happen.

That is on the one side of the proposition. On the other side you have all the police chiefs of Pennsylvania asking that this bill be passed, and they are asking it for two reasons: One reason is, of course, in order to protect the citizens of Pennsylvania and also protect themselves, because these men who are running around committing crimes, if they did not have revolvers on them, the lives of others would be much safer.

Not long ago, in Philadelphia, an inspector by the name of Blackburn ran into the house of a very prominent Philadelphian, at the call of the family of this man, to disarm him; and Blackburn was killed. The chances are that this would not have happened if this prominent Philadelphian had not had a gun.

Those are the cases, and those are the things you have to consider in connection with this bill. Some men have thought they did not want to vote for this bill because it would interfere with the sportsmen. Now how anybody can conscientiously vote against this bill because he wants to support his sportsmen, the men who want a day or two of pleasure, I cannot understand. I am not a sportsman, but to me human life means a whole lot more than the pleasure someone may get in killing a deer or a pheasant or a rabbit or a raccoon—enjoying himself for a few hours in the day. Just stop to think for a moment. Weigh that enjoyment against the misery and the trouble and the discomfort and the sorrow in the homes of the people whose dear ones have been murdered or killed. Take the home of this Gustine family—an only son of a prominent man in the city of Philadelphia, killed through carelessness—not of those three unfortunates who are in jail, because they were not bad boys, but through the carelessness and the indifference of the men in this Legislature. If two years ago this bill had been passed, I venture to say young Gustine would be alive today in the bosom of his family. That father and that mother would have the companionship of their boy and the fathers and mothers of those other three boys now serving time in the Eastern Penitentiary would have the companionship of their children. I say that that wrong is chargeable to us here in the Senate of Pennsylvania, and I want to bring it home to you that this is an important piece of legislation—for no individual man, no individual or citizen, but for the safety of the home, for the safety of the citizens generally and for the benefit of the entire State of Pennsylvania.

This bill is not my bill—it does not belong to me, except to the extent that I am the sponsor of it; but it belongs to you men, and you will vote for it or against it at your own pleasure, as you deem best. I have no other interest in the matter.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, may ask anything he wants; but I think he knows more about guns than I do.

Mr. SCHANTZ Mr. President, I would like to know whether this bill, if it had been in effect, would have prevented the man who pawned his overcoat to get a gun, from getting the gun?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I can answer that easily. If this bill had been a law he would had to go to the pawnbroker and make an application to get a gun, and then he would have had to go back in 24 hours to get it. He could not have gotten that gun that night.

Mr. SCHANTZ. But, Mr. President, he could have gotten it?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, he could not have gotten it until 24 hours after making the application.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would also like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, whether in Philadelphia any foreigners are found with guns in their possession and whether any foreigners commit crimes with firearms?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would say in answer to that question, that I think the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, knows more about that proposition than I do. I know that foreigners carry guns. I know also that even under this bill we would have to give the citizens of Pennsylvania permission to carry guns, because it is their right.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, whether it is not a fact that there is a statute already on the statute books in Pennsylvania against foreigners having or possessing guns?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, is a very able lawyer and I think when he makes that statement he knows, as a citizen and as a lawyer, that it is true.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, has intimated that this is my child. I want to say to this Senate that I do not claim any paternity of this bill. I do not claim it as my child nor as my adopted child. It is true that two years ago when this bill was before this Senate in a much more vicious form than it is now, I was called in as a surgeon to operate on this bill; and then I performed on this bill several major and many minor operations; but I do not, either in its present condition or at that time, recognize any sponsorship for it. I consider that it is a dangerous bill. I do not believe that any firearms bill that we might pass in this Legislature would reduce crime or banditry. I believe this bill, instead of being called a bill to protect the citizens, should be called a bill to protect the criminal and to disarm the citizens of this State. I believe that the effect of this bill—while not so meant by its sponsors and its authors—would be to make it harder for decent citizens to carry firearms for their own protection; and, as far as the bandits, the criminals, are concerned, they will get the firearms any how, regardless of any law we may pass. We cannot legislate crime out of the State by the passage of an act of this kind.

In addition to that, Mr. President, it seems to me we should go a little slowly before we pass any more of these regulatory laws. We are now obliged to get a license before we can own an automobile; we are now obliged to get a license before we can operate that automobile; we must have a license before we may own a dog; we must have a license before we may hunt, and before we go fishing—and I don't know, there are probably several other things that require licenses before we may conduct the ordinary affairs and pleasures of this life.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, we must also get a license before we may get married.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Yes, Mr. President, we must have a license to get married, as the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, very properly reminded me; but it does seem to me, Mr. President, that this bill will not accomplish the results which the people behind it think it will accomplish. As United States Senator Moses said, upon a recent occasion: "This was formerly a land of the free. It has now become a region of the regulated." And I think that in this Senate we should not pass this bill at this time, because it is not necessary and it will not accomplish the good that it seeks to accomplish.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I believe the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, would better interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. He knows more about it than I do.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, whether this bill exempts firearms with barrels more than 15 inches long?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not know enough about firearms to answer the question.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would also ask if it does not exempt shotguns having barrels of 24 inches or over.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, it prohibits shotguns having barrels more than 24 inches long. But I want to say for the benefit of the Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, that I never shot off a shotgun in my life. If I saw a shotgun I would run.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I live in one of the so-called rural districts of the State—just how rural we are is another question, but we are called a rural district. I want to say just a word with reference to this bill. We had the pleasure two years ago of having before us the district attorneys of the Commonwealth at a largely attended hearing before the committee in this Senate chamber, asking the passage of some such legislation. We referred this question, Mr. President, to a commission that we ourselves created; and this commission, made of judges and lawyers and others, studied this question for two years; and they come back to us this time urging again some legislation along this line. We have heard on this—not this particular bill, but a bill along this line—the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in this chamber, Mr. President, appealing to us for some legislation, additional legislation, along the line of law enforcement. I want to say to you, Mr. President, that as a member representing a rural district with large organizations of sportsmen, some of whom are not for this bill, it is my intention to-night to cast my vote for this bill, for the reason that the greater interest of the great mass of people in this Commonwealth must be looked after, must be taken care of; and if it is necessary, Mr. President, to place some regulation upon the sportsmen of this Commonwealth, let us place a reasonable regulation on them in the interests of the protection of life and of property of the entire people of the Commonwealth.

It is true, as the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, has said, that we have to have a license to get married, have to have a license to keep a dog, have to have a license to fish and a license to hunt—and licenses for a lot of other things; but, Gentlemen of the Senate, the most dangerous thing of the whole lot, that of carrying and owning a deadly weapon, we have not, as a legislative body of Pennsylvania, up to tonight, put any regulations on at all; and with all the crime that is being committed—the President of the United States devoting two-thirds of his message to Congress to the question of law enforcement—with banditry running at large in the cities of this Commonwealth, it seems to me the least we can do for the citizens of this Commonwealth is to vote in favor of legislation of this kind.

Now, I cannot tell you, Mr. President, how much it is going to prevent I don't know. I think its provisions are reasonable. I think that the organizations that comply with the regulations placed upon you and upon me requiring us to take out a license to fish or to hunt, ought not to complain very much if they are required to take out a license once every five years to carry a gun. The time has come in this Commonwealth when we in the Senate of Pennsylvania should pass such a law as this before us tonight and try it out—I believe it is a step in the right direction. It certainly will be beneficial to the people at large, and we are asked to do it by practically all the agencies which are for the enforcement of law in the Commonwealth. And for those reasons, Mr. President, as a rural member, I shall vote for this bill.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, what the amendments are that Mr. Ladner, President of the Conservation Council, agreed to in the House.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, if the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, will turn around and talk to the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, I am sure he will be told all about it.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Clinton, Mr. Quigley, if he knows what the amendments are that Mr. Ladner has O. K.'d.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I understand from Mr. Ladner, and also from District Attorney Fox, that the hunters were taken almost out from under the provisions of this bill, under the present terms. They are going further, in the House, by allowing a man with a hunter's license, or a man with a fisher's license, to carry a pistol openly on his person. That will take care of the hunters and fishers in this Commonwealth.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I think that should satisfy every Senator on this floor. I will vote for this bill.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 33, entitled:

An Act relating to the paving repaving repairing and maintenance of streets and highways and other public places on which street railways now are or may hereafter be operated and defining the duties and obligations with respect thereto of counties cities boroughs townships municipalities the Commonwealth and all other subdivisions and agencies thereof and of corporations owning leasing or operating street railways on such streets highways and other public places.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, this bill is to relieve the street railway companies from an obligation to the cities and townships of the State so far as they have contracted to take care of the rights of way. This bill is intended to meet the changed economic conditions.

I agree with the author of this bill that economic conditions have changed. Busses are now running through many of the suburban districts, and trolley cars have become obsolete. In addition to that, I also agree that the cost of maintenance has somewhat increased; but these are no reasons why we should pass this bill at this time. These contracts were not entered into with the State of Pennsylvania, but with these several political divisions. These contracts were made by the companies considering their local environment, and that is where they should go for relief. They have no right to come into this body and put this bill on our doorstep.

I have been informed that this bill is unconstitutional. I am a business man; I am not a lawyer; and my opinion in this connection is not a serious one; but that is not the vital question. We Senators have been elected to come here, and we have no right to sit here and vote hundreds of thousands of dollars away from our constituents and out of their pockets. I say hundreds of thousands of dollars—it amounted to several million dollars; and this is not covering a period of one year, but it repeats itself every year. This is a serious question—whether we are to give away the rights of our constituents in this manner.

I am not antagonistic to corporations, and I think everyone here is aware of that fact; but I think they should not come here and ask us to pass legislation of this kind. They should go back to the people who furnished them with the franchises in the first place. The people to whom these franchises were granted have made fortunes, and they in turn sold the franchises, and those people who bought them also made fortunes. And so they piled up stocks and bonds on which they cannot pay the interest; so they come to us now and ask to be relieved from the maintenance of the rights of way, so that they can pay interest on those bonds and stocks, which have no tangible assets behind them.

There is nothing in this bill at all to commend it to any Senator sitting in this chamber. I have also been told that there are sections in this State where the traction companies will have to cease to run their cars if this legislation is not passed. That is not a question to come here. Let them go to their local authorities and hand back their franchises and cease to run their cars; and then, if the people want them to run their cars, they can grant them new franchises under different terms; but I dare say there are only a few of those isolated cases in this Commonwealth.

I have heard the Senator from Philadelphia tonight talking about the firearms bill, which we have just passed, and he said that when the members from the country ask the members of the city to stand by them they have always done so; and this is a place where real money, big money, is being taken from our pockets. I know it does not concern the City of Philadelphia. They have unfortunately made a contract with their traction companies which relieved them; and they are all sorry today for it. If they had to do it again, they would not do it.

I remember very well that two or three weeks ago we passed Senator Woodward's Underliers Bill here. At that time we voted for the people of Philadelphia, to save them from having to buy something which they did not want. They were trying to sell at that time bonds to the City of Philadelphia at 70 cents on the dollar; and today the traction companies over the whole State are coming to this body and asking that we relieve them from an obligation amounting to millions of dollars. I ask the Senators here to give this serious consideration before voting upon it, because I want you all to know what it means to your people.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I admire the position my friend from Delaware County has taken. Nevertheless, conditions differ in different localities. We have given this bill a great deal of attention at this session. It has been gone over thoroughly on several occasions in the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, and was finally so amended that in case any railway company sought to abandon a line, they must put the street back in the condition in which they found it and repave it.

Now the very fact that economic conditions have changed, the very fact that the motor and the motor bus have made their advent, is the very reason why an act of this kind should be placed upon the statute books of this Commonwealth. I do not know what conditions may obtain in Senator McClure's county, but I do know that in many, many localities of this Commonwealth there are the small street car companies who are struggling along and their rolling stock going to pieces. Only recently many of the companies put on the one-man system instead of the two; and here and there they are tearing the tracks up a great deal more rapidly than they were ten or fifteen years ago. I think we owe protection to the laboring men of those communities, so that they may have means to get to and from their work.

It is not only the motor bus line that has ruined the street car business, it is the private machine that stops on the street corners and loads up the shoppers or the shop-going workmen on their way to and from downtown that makes a bill of this kind a necessity.

Mr. President, insofar as the constitutionality of this bill is concerned, I hold in my hand an opinion of some seven or eight lawyers of this Commonwealth, who rule that this bill is constitutional. Mr. President, it is not the function of the Senate of Pennsylvania to rule upon the constitutionality of legislation; that is the function of the Department of Justice; but the question of the constitutionality of this bill was gone into very thoroughly indeed, and Senator Buckman, the Chairman of the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, requested the members to hold the bill up for some time, that we might look into that very question. I would stake my judgment as an attorney of this Commonwealth, on the constitutionality of this measure.

And let me call the attention of this honorable Senate to the fact that since the passage of the Public Service Commission Act of 1913, that body writes or almost writes the franchising of the street car companies that seek new lines or new entries into the field for passenger service. Roads have been changed and different specifications have been made. Recently in the Governor's Inaugural Address he recommended the taking over of the county bridges, the taking over of those portions of the State Highway System that pass through boroughs or municipalities, and that the State should bear the expense of paving on the basis of 18 feet in width. Personally I hope that will go through, whether it has any relation to this argument or not, I merely bring it up to show that economic conditions are changing; and it strikes me, Gentlemen of the Senate, that we must maintain in this Commonwealth our street car systems.

I sincerely hope, inasmuch as this bill has ridden at anchor for so long, that we can pass it tonight and send it over the House for its action.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President. I will.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I would like the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, to answer whether or not he believes that under this bill this body is qualified to judge as to whether or not the contracts between the street car companies and municipalities should be abgrogated? Are we better qualified than the Mayors and Councilmen of the municipalities to decide that question?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I think the learned Senator has had more legislative experiences than I have had; but personally I believe the Senate has a just right to exercise its wisdom as to whether or not to relieve the traction companies of that burden and to express that opinion in a statute of this kind.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I think this is one of the most vicious pieces of legislation that has ever been offered in the State of Pennsylvania. It is not a question as to whether or not the street car companies are entitled to relief, it is a question as to whether this Legislature shall abrogate the agreements that have been made between the street car companies and the officers of the municipalities throughout the State of Pennsylvania. In the County of Allegheny the Pittsburgh Railway Companies have made a number of agreements with the municipalities and a number of municipalities have not made those agreements. Under the provisions of this act the municipalities that have not already been forced into making agreements would not get a single cent for paving or repaving if this act is put into effect. Those that have made the agreements would be taken care of. And I say again, for this body to attempt to abrogate agreements that have been made between the councilmen and the mayors and the officers of municipalities throughout this State of Pennsylvania, would not be right. This is a vicious piece of legislation and one that we may not be very proud of if it should pass.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Erie. Mr. Kitts. permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President. I will.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, whether this contract or agreement would cease after the contract expired in the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I think that the Senator will find that covered in Section three, on page two of the act. In my opinion, as the act is drawn, it would not abrogate such a contract while in force.

Mr. EINSTEIN. Mr. President, I do not mean that, I mean in the future.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, in the future it might. The same situation exists in the City of Philadelphia, as I understand it. In 1907 the P. R. T. made a contract with the City of Philadelphia, paying them three hundred thousand dollars a year. That contract is to be in force until 1957, and by virtue of Section three that does not abrogate that contract.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, and Members of this Senate, it would seem to me that the father of this bill and those interested in its behalf could have gone with better grace to the source from which they obtained their franchise, rather than come to the Senate and the Legislature of Pennsylvania to abrogate an agreement made by ordinance in the different counties and different cities and broughs and townships. In the State of Pennsylvania these franchises were granted and certain rights were defined and some went into the highways and byways and to councilmen; and from the municipal governments they got the rights of way; and the agreements were entered into and it was universal in this State that the street railway companies were to maintain between their tracks the rights of way and a foot and a half on the outside of their tracks for the general use of the public and at their own cost. Now they come and ask the Legislature to release them from that obligation, which is just as definite in its character as any obligation might be of any corporation in existence under the laws of this State, and in doing so, knowing full well that there are certain contracts to relieve the corporations of holdings over what is known as repair gang where the municipality has taken over the question of the maintenance of those roads between the tracks and a foot and a half on the outside of their tracks at a certain annual rate. In Pittsburgh we have a contract for a period of six years. I do not know how many of those years have elapsed, but I think there are at least three or four, at the rate of $200,000 a year. At the expiration of that contract it ceases, the present contract becomes null and void. The City then has to maintain those highways, which were to be maintained by the street car company; and they are not doing it through the same source that gave them the grant and the rights, but they are coming here to the superior legislative body to say to the people where these street car companies have their tracks now laid, "You have no further rights from us; we have been placed in that position under the guidance of the legislative bodies at Harrisburg."

Where does the local government participate? Where are we going to rest in the future for the protection of our people? There is no use in discussing the question of the formation of these corporations, it is so well known to every person that resides in these different localities. In a sense, from the bonds, they got the money. The stock was all watered, floated and settled all over creation and there are certain families, well known in this state, which have passed away, and in so far as their heads are concerned they left more or less of such securities in the custody of their heirs. What need they care? Ever since then the Street Car Companies have been peddling those securities, and have gotten premiums on those securities in accordance with the payments made.

Now the condition has arisen about the different methods of transportation, and instead of their giving us minute-and-a-half street car service in rush hours they give us ten-minute service; and in the slow hours fifteen and twenty minute service. I live in one of the most thickly populated districts in Pittsburgh, and in rush hours, from 6.30 to 9.00, we get minute-and-half service, and from 4.30 on to half-past six a minute-and-a-half service. Today it runs from five to fifteen minute service; and while you may talk about your straphangers, we can talk about our clotheshangers, holding on to one another so that they can stand up in the middle of the aisle; and now these companies come to us after having had all these grants and franchises given to them, and taken all this money,—which is stock certificates and bonds turned into money, and ask us to relieve them by legislative enactment from an agreement and contract they entered into with the people to get those franchises, and for us to maintain all our highways and ask the people to go to Bally-Hoo.

Now, I am speaking of the people of Pittsburgh. The people of Pittsburgh, if they would have had their way, years and years ago, would have turned it into municipal ownership; but they never had the opportunity to put that through in addition to the bond flotations to take care of our necessary public improvements,—or we might have taken them over. And to ask this Legislature to abrogate all those agreements would mean that we would be saying to the people of Pennsylvania, "You have no local rights. The local rights,—grants and franchises that you have given, are going to be set aside, and you have got to do what the Legislature says you shall do, not what you should do, without any right at all."

I think this is the most vicious piece of legislation I have known of since I have been a member of this Senate, and I certainly shall vote "No".

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I was undecided as to the merits of this bill, but since I have listened to the Senator from Allegheny I am convinced that something must be done to afford relief to the trolley companies of the Commonwealth. He cites the fact that where they are expected to run on two-minute schedules they run on twelve and fifteen minute schedules; and that is why they need this relief. They are supposed to put their resources and their income into the business of running trolleys and affording transportation to the people of the State, and not into paving streets. If they are allowed to put their income and their revenue into the business of running trolley cars and furnishing transportation to the people of the State, then they can give satisfactory service.

The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, was speaking of the source from which they got their authority. This is the source of authority. Their authority emanates from the Legislature of Pennsylvania. We create the boroughs and townships and cities, and they can do what you authorize and empower them to do. There would be no boroughs, there would be no townships, and there would be no cities in Pennsylvania unless they were authorized and empowered by acts of the General Assembly to function and to exist. The Public Service Commission have stepped in to regulate these matters in many respects. We also have created and established the Public Service Commission. Here is the source of authority and here is the place where the people come for relief. And, as I say, trolley companies were not established and created for the purpose of paving streets and relieving the boroughs and townships and the cities of that responsiblity, which they have assumed, but to furnish transportation facilities to the people of Pennsylvania, and that is what you want them to resort to. We want them to get down to the business of transporting people and furnishing that accommodation for which they were incorporated.

Unfortunately the local municipalities have taken it unto themselves to incorporate this into their franchises, with out permission and with our authority; and if we authorized them to do that we can also remove the authority.

It has been asserted that the trolley companies are making million and millions of dollars. I do not say that there are none in the State of Pennsylvania that are making money, but I know this, that they are many, many of them that are not making any money. They have not paid any dividends; they have paid nothing at all to their stockholders for years. I know dozens of companies that have gone out of existence, that have ceased to function, where their tracks have been removed,—or, rather, they are still in the street but the cars have ceased to operate; and it is a question of furnishing relief so that the people that want this transportation may continue to have it and not lose it entirely. Where these trolley companies go out of existence usually busses come and take their places. Then what do the municipalities get? Do the busses help you to maintain the highways? Do they contribute anything to the maintenance of your streets? Not a cent. When you lose a trolley company and raise a bus line you will have to maintain the highway anyhow; and therefore, in order that the people of the State of Pennsylvania who need this transportation may continue to have it, I would support the bill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, think that the councilmen in the cities and the townships and the borough authorities know what they should do in connection with the traction company? And does he think that if the situation is as he has stated they would not give relief? Why do they have to come here?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I think in some ways that they do, and I will be frank enough to say that I think that some do not know what they do. Moreover, I am not eager to express an opinion on that subject, but that is my candid opinion; and it is a doubtful proposition whether a franchise granted by a borough council many years ago can now be abrogated by that same council or by a board of township commissioners at the present time. Where a contract was entered into and a franchise granted, ten, fifteen, twenty or twenty-five years ago the only place where relief can be granted is in the Legislature of Pennsylvania. Mr. President, I do not believe that the present council or the present board of supervisors has the right to abrogate that contract or that franchise which was granted by their predecessors a quarter of a century ago.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, whether I understand correctly that he thinks the present council could not abrogate this contract.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I say I doubt whether they have a right to do so without the authorization of the Legislature. If the Legislature cannot change the contract certainly the borough council and the township supervisors cannot change it.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would like again to ask the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, this question: Do I understand him to say that those local authorities are not capable of handling their local affairs?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I did not say that. I said I have no doubt that some were eminently capable and I also hesitated to say that all of them were capable of doing so, but I said I preferred not to express an opinion on the subject.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to have the pleasure of interrogating the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lehigh to inform the Senate as to who now has the bus lines in the City of Philadelphia and the bus lines in the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would not attempt to give that information to the Senate as to the City of Pittsburgh in view of the personality of the Senator that does the interrogating. In Philadelphia I am not so very well acquainted either, I think the P. R. T. has some bus lines and there are some private owners.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, the same source that controls the traction lines in both cities controls the bus lines in both cities, so that nobody is losing in reference to the transportation by busses. The only difference is that instead of paying seven cents fare they pay a twenty-five cent fare on all bus lines in Pittsburgh. In Philadelphia I think the highest rate is twenty-five cents and down to fifteen cents; and they are owned and controlled in Pittsburgh and Allegheny County and reach into Washington County, by the Pittsburgh Traction Company, and in Philadelphia by the Mitten Organization. So therefor they have not got only one but they have both.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I should like to ask the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, if the traction companies were willing to pay the City of Pittsburgh two hundred thousand dollars a year and the Traction Companies are willing to pay the City of Pittsburgh two hundred thousand dollars a year to maintain their rights of way for street railway tracks, how much does he think it would cost the taxpayers of the State?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I do not believe that I am very much more versed in the traction situation of Allegheny County than the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure is. I do not know how to answer that question.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Erie, Mr. Kitts, if it cost the City of Pittsburgh $200,000, in proportion how much would it cost the State?

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, that could not be measured by a comprehensive comparison.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the Senator from Erie has told the truth,—it could not be measured.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I do not want to become a general nuisance, and I am not going to bother you any more to-night after these remarks. This is a piece of legislation that has also been before this Senate on a number of occasions. I am opposed to the bill, and one of the reasons why I am opposed to this bill is because at the beginning of this session I came to the conclusion that I was following a great leader and that he had laid out a great program for the members of this Senate to follow,—and that leader was the Senator whose name is on this bill as its sponsor. I am going to read to the members of the Senate what he said at the opening of the session, and maybe he can explain it. Maybe he did not mean what I think it means, or maybe he has had a change of heart. All men, as they go through life, have a right to change their ideas. I have not changed my ideas on this thing, and I still agree with him, as I did then: "Before there is any law to enforce by the Executive or to interpret by the Judiciary, one must be enacted. We are the direct representatives of the people; accountable to them and to the malone, and I favor the repeal of every law empowering board, bureau or any agency whatsoever to adopt rules and regulations which may be enforced the same as the penal statutes of the General Assembly." Those are the words of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Senator Schantz. Why he changed his mind I do not know. Being a clever lawyer, he will tell you why, and he will wriggle out of it, I am sure—there is no doubt about it.

This particular bill is a pernicious piece of legislation. It goes to the heart and sinew of the people. It has taken away from them, perforce, the right to earn a livelihood. I am not opposed to this bill solely because it was advocated by a Real Estate Board. I am opposed to the principle. I am now opposed to that principle, as was the President Pro Tempore when he was sworn in to preside over this body, and no man or set of men living can for any reason make me change on a principle that I am convinced is right; and I am convinced that this is wrong. I am convinced that a board to regulate barbers, a board to regulate engineers, a board to regulate butchers, is not within the rights and powers of one man here in the Senate of Pennsylvania. The people are entitled to some freedom, and particularly are the poorer classes entitled to the freedom and the right and the privilege to earn their livelihood without having the hand of authority take it away from them, without having the hands of a Senator take it away from them, and pull them from their homes and make them criminals when they are doing nothing else except trying to make a livelihood for themselves and their children, in order that they may be able to bring their families up decently.

This is another case of amalgamation, a case of combination. It has become so nowadays that the corner grocery exists no more. There are chain stores. The corner drugstore exists no longer,—there are chain drugstores. There are chain butcher shops. There are amalgamations of interests, the whole lot of them are controlled by combinations that are making it hard for the ordinary man to make a livelihood.

What does this bill do? This bill makes every man apply to a board for the right to sell real estate. It is a hardship only on the little chap that may be working on the sidelines to make a livelihood. It does not make the building operator, the man who builds a property or properties apply for a license, it does not make the lawyer apply for a license, it does not make the executor or the guardian have a license,—and the reason why they are not included in this bill is self-evident. Because, if that class of men were included in this bill you would have such an opposition to it that it would not have a chance. So, in order that the real estate manipulators can get control of this business on the outside and have no opposition, they have left out of the wording of this law the two most important factors that would object.

We had a meeting here, and who came up? A few of the prominent real estate men throughout Pennsylvania. And what did they have before you? They showed you the accomplishments of some other states, and particularly they brought one of its commissioners of New Jersey, and this commissioner said, "We recovered $150,000 last year in licenses, and we will spend $82,000 of it for maintaining our organization, and we had $40,000 returned to the various people who claimed that they were defrauded. Now these are the exact figures: They took in $150,000 in licenses, spent $82,000 for their organizations, paid men $25.00 and paid for their services, and $32,000 were returned last year by men who defrauded the people out of their money.

In the State of New Jersey where this act has been in effect for some years, within the last three years they have had a man who flooded the entire United States with literature, selling lots at enormously high prices to all the people that he could get hold of, selling lots that cost $50.00 and $100.00 for $2,000.00 or $3,000.00. Eventually he went broke, and millions of dollars of money belonging to the people of New Jersey and Pennsylvania and the surrounding States was all squandered. And he was working under the jurisdiction of this great New Jersey Board for the real estate operators in the State of New Jersey.

I was told by the Commissioner from New Jersey that a number of men have been refused licenses in New Jersey and they came over to Philadelphia or to Pennsylvania, to practice. Then when I asked him to tell me some names, he gave me the name of one man, in Phillipsburg, and said, "Before the next meeting I will send you the names of a large number more." I have not heard the name of a single man besides the one in Philipsburg.

But that is not the question, Gentlemen of the Senate. This form of legislation is wrong. We should not make a criminal out of every man in the State of Pennsylvania who is trying to make a livelihood. There is no necessity for this board. There is no reason why this board should exist except that a few men want to grab up all this business and drive the little fellows out. How is it going to drive the little fellow out? In order to get a license he must maintain an office. There is many a man in the City of Philadelphia who works by day and in the night time or on Saturday afternoon he goes around among his neighbors and friends and has a real estate transaction, in which he makes a few dollars that help to support his family. That man may still exist, but how? The only way he can exist is, he will have to become a salesman for one of these big concerns and divide his commission. This is an attempt by the big real estate operators to freeze out the little fellow. There is no question about it. Senator Schantz nor anyone else can bring before this body any list of criminal operators in real estate in Pennsylvania. There may be a man here and there, as there is in everything, but Pennsylvania is not a lot State. We have no lot program; we have no great boom. We have substantial reliable real estate which is handled by substantial, reliable real estate men. But my main objection is that Pennsylvania should not interfere with any man in any walk of life trying to make an honest livelihood for himself and his family, and I hope that you Gentlemen of the Senate will vote against this bill and I for one have the hardihood to expect Senator Schantz to vote against it.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I am afraid the Senator from Philadelphia is now asking too much. I am glad indeed that he agreed with me on January 1st. He usually agrees with me when he understands me, and if he would understand the provisions of this bill he would agree with me now. So far as I know there is not one line or clause in this bill that would give any board or anybody the power to adopt any rules or regulations which may be enforced the same as penal statutes. If there is any provision in this bill that gives any board or any bureau or any department the right and the power to adopt any rules or regulations and requirements to which they may attach penalties which may be enforced the same as penal statutes, then I will change my position as to the board. This bill does just exactly what the Senator from Philadelphia says we want in Pennsylvania,—it protects an honest man in making an honest livelihood. There is nothing penal, there is nothing criminal in this bill. It is an effort to pass, so far as the real estate business is concerned, a firearms bill, which the Senator from Philadelphia a little while ago so vehemently supported,—to disarm the crook and the cheat in the real estate business and to make him get a license when he wants to operate in this business, and establish himself as one worthy and entitled to do so. Certainly if a man in Pennsylvania must prove his ability and his competency to carry a gun, a man ought to be willing to establish himself and his reliability and his competency when it comes to selling real estate to the widows and orphans and those who are off their guard.

This is a bill to protect the business, to protect the honest man in the business. There is nothing in this bill that regulates any size. Not every real estate dealer can be a big real estate dealer. There is nothing against him if he is a small real estate dealer. Any man who can qualify is welcome to enter the business. It is on the statute books of this country in twenty-three of the Commonwealths where it has been tried out and proven to be a great protection to the business.

The other day a hearing was held in this Senate chamber where the merits of the bill were expounded, and there was not a single voice raised against the bill. The other day in committee, off my guard, I yielded to an amendment which the Senator from Philadelphia introduced. That is the only bad paragraph in this bill and I am obliged and committed to use my efforts when the bill comes to the House to have it there eliminated. I admit that that should not be in the bill, but I promised the Senators here that I will do everything in my power when the bill gets to the House to have that provision eliminated; and with that eliminated I think it should go on the statute books of the State.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, there is an amendment in the bill and the amendment is that if we are going to pass any legislation let us pass some legislation that makes the real estate men know what they are doing. They should have a little bit of education. That they do not want. They do not want them to know that he must know how to read and write and know something about the laws relating to real estate. That is all I put in the bill and if we are going to have any board here and we are raising the intelligence of the real estate vendor, then let him have a little examination. That is all. If you are going to have a board and make the real estate men a higher grade of people, all I ask is that they know how to read and write and know something about the real estate business. Now they are going to increase the standing of the real estate men in Pennsylvania and have a board and allow them to get in if they do not know anything at all, if they do not know how to read and write, nor do they know anything about the real estate business and then they are going to improve the real estate situation in Pennsylvania. That on its face, to me, is ridiculous, but there is one thing that I am very glad of: Senator Schantz says this is like the firearms bill,—yet on that bill he voted "No." He was against the firearms bill and he wants to be for this one. That is just like him. He voted "No" on the other bill. He is a lawyer,—let him juggle that one a little bit.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, for a full hour and a half this question was discussed before the committee and not one single solitary voice was raised against this bill. I believe there was only one or two questions asked and one of those I asked myself, and that was, what does this bill provide? It was answered in a very few words: We are trying to establish the moral character of every man who applies for a license to do a real estate business." There was nothing else required in this bill, only that a man by an honest, upright man, with a good reputation in the community and nothing more. You were very careful on that day to ask the question of the men who spoke here and who were the highest type men in this State, we asked this question, is there anything else required? They said no, only that we provide some way to establish the moral character of the men who desire to engage in this business. We asked them whether there was an educational test required and they answered "No." I was perfectly satisfied then because we know that many men who have a poor education, who have merely a grade school education, have a fine type of reputation and are high grade men; but they would not be able to pass some very technical examination on real estate,—still their character would be good and they would be high class men. Now the only thing that was put into this bill, like Senator Schantz says, that I objected to, was this educational test that was put in it by Senator Salus. That might keep some nice, honest men out of the real estate business merely because he could not pass the educational test, and I urge every member of this Senate to vote for this bill and give every honest man a chance to engage in this very reputable business and to keep every dishonest man out.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lehigh if this bill does not create a board.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, it does.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lehigh if he did not vote for the administrative code last week?

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I guess I did.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, that has a clause which prohibits hereafter the creation of boards. Every member of this Senate has had his experience with boards. They become so autocratic that you cannot speak to them and I think it is high time that it is written in the administrative code that all boards are through and that the things pertaining to the several departments in the State of Pennsylvania are referred to the different departments and no more boards. The Senator from Lehigh admits that he wants to create another board and I think that it is entirely out of place to create any more boards in Pennsylvania. We have had our sad experiences with boards and I think the sponsor of this bill, Senator Schantz, had just as many experiences with those boards as the other members of this Senate and I think it is a bad piece of legislation to pass at this time, to create boards when the Governor has put into the administrative code the abolishing of boards hereafter.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, the legislature of Pennsylvania make the laws and not the Governor. The Governor has a right to sign a bill or to veto it, and if I had known that the Governor had written that bill I would have voted against it. The Legislature of Pennsylvania is the law-making body, regardless of what is in that Code. There was an Administrative Code passed back in the last administration, and every session since then it has been changed; and what goes into this stays in it until it is amended or repealed, or something else is done to it. And furthermore, that has not been signed by the Governor, and I have no doubt if this is in it the Governor will veto the bill

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

VETO OF RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO SPECIAL COMMISSION TO STUDY CONDITIONS OF HOMES FOR CHILDREN OF DISABLED VETERANS.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 25, 1929.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith without my approval the concurrent resolution passed by the Senate and House on March 13, 1929. This concurrent resolution would establish a special commission of veterans to make a study of conditions relating to veterans' orphans and the dependent children of disabled veterans and to make report to the next session of the General Assembly.

I understand that an amendment is being offered to Senate Bill No. 597, now pending in the House of Representatives, which would create an advisory commission of veterans within the Department of Military Affairs as a permanent agency of the State government. One of the purposes of the creation of such an advisory commission is to investigate and study the subject matter of said concurrent resolution.

It is, therefore, unnecessary to create a special comission for this purpose.

For these reasons the resolution is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the resolution pass the objection of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

RESOLUTION POSTPONED.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that the question, together with the further consideration of the resolution be postponed for the present.

The House met at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Martin W. Schweitzer, Ph. D., offered the following prayer:

Lord, Thou art the God of our fathers in whom they trusted and were not ashamed. In prayer they laid the foundations of this nation. Surely Thou wilt not forsake us, their children, when we turn to Thee confessing our sins and seeking Thy favor. Graciously remember Thy people at all times; especially be Thou our refuge and strength, a very present help in the time of trouble. Purge us of our sins by the trials through which we pass, and gird us for what awaits us, that our faith fail not though the earth be removed and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea.

We thank Thee for the evidences of Thy presence with us, for all the success with which Thou hast crowned our efforts thus far in these sessions. Inspire us to strive for greater things, and to expect greater things of Thee, O God.

Bless our Governor, the Speaker of the House and all the members and officers present and absent, and hasten the coming of the Prince of Peace. In His name, we ask it. Amen.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 1309, file folio 3125, on page 38 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Marcus.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1309, entitled:

An Act to provide for contribution among tortfeasors.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of House Bill No. 1309 to give us an explanation of it.

Mr. MARCUS. Very gladly, Mr. Speaker.

In answer to the request from the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, I desire to inform him that the purpose of this bill which provides for tortfeasors is for the purpose of amending the old law. For the benefit of the members of the House I believe it might be enlightening if I were to illustrate the purpose of this act. Under the common law, if a verdict is received against a defendant in a damage case that defendant could not receive a pro rata share from another defendant with whom he was jointly responsible in the damage action. This bill provides that when the plaintiff receives a verdict against A, that A can receive a pro-rata share of the verdict rendered against A from B. Does this explain the question asked by the gentleman from Philadelphia?

Mr. SOWERS. Does not your bill endeavor to incorporate into our law, our English system, the Roman system, that existed in Rome, a contribution between tortfeasors.

Mr. MARCUS. To the contrary, this bill is for the purpose of amending the old common law by making one defendant equally responsible with the other

Mr. SOWERS. How would one defendant recover against another, in assumpsit or trespass?

Mr. MARCUS. By an action in trespass.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill to me is a very technical one in character and provides for an entirely different system of law than we English-speaking people have been accustomed to. It is an effort to incorporate into the English system of law in Pennsylvania that system of law known as the Roman system. The Roman system of law was that if two people had an accident, or were responsible for an accident, that there should be a distribution of the damages between them. That is, that the jury should try to determine how much each one was to be blamed and how much each one was to pay. Now, that system of law has never existed in this Commonwealth; it has never existed in England; whether it would work well here in America or not, I am not prepared to say, but I hesitate to say that I would go along with that system until we have had a further chance to study it, or at least until I have had a further chance to study it. The best illustration I can give you, if you were down in Philadelphia in our district court where we have admiralty cases, you would find that if these admiralty cases are tried under this system, you would hear them for four or five or six days, or a week, arguing on both sides as to which party was most to blame and which party was least to blame and how much each one should pay. I want to call your attention to the fact that this is a bill of great importance. It is a serious thing and I would ask, are we prepared now to make the change?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have just one more word I desire to say in regard to this bill, and that is, that it is an important bill. The Bar Association in Bedford Springs in 1928 recommended that a bill of this character ought to be on the statute books. I believe in passing this legislation and in doing so I believe we are going one step forward.

Mr. WELTY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. MARCUS. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WELTY. Under this act, if a suit is brought by a plaintiff against one of several tortfeasors and a verdict is recovered against that tortfeasor, is the verdict so recovered against that tortfeasor the basis of a suit by another defendant against that tortfeasor?

Mr. MARCUS. That would be my understanding of the bill.

Mr. WELTY. Does it say that?

Mr. MARCUS. It does not, but that is the interpretation of this act because of the numerous Supreme Court decisions explaining that it would be necessary for legislation to clarify the very thing that the gentleman from Lehigh is asking about.

Mr. WELTY. Is it not then so that the tortfeasor against whom suit is brought by the tortfeasor against whom the verdict is recovered would have no defense in the original suit of the plaintiff against the tortfeasor whom the plaintiff chooses to sue?

Mr. MARCUS. That is my interpretation.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HART. Has any other State adopted this law, or do you want Pennsylvania to take the initiative?

Mr. MARCUS. I cannot answer that question intelligently because of the fact that I do not know.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1755, entitled:

An Act to amend section ten of an act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred sixty eight), entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining their duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county-seats; principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State Highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State Highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State Highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State Highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State Highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; defining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement, maintenance and repair of township or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions, providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county, township, borough, or incorporated town, and requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs, and incorporated towns with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State Highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State Highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not affected by provisions of this act," as amended, providing for the construction and maintenance of State highways in boroughs by the Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, that we may save time and that the members may properly be informed concerning these bills, I ask you to request each sponsor to explain the bill instead of interrogating.

The SPEAKER. The suggestion of the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Fred W. Patterson, is that the sponsor of House Bill No. 1755, Mr. Griffith, of Indiana, explain the provisions of the bill. Will the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Griffith, comply with the request?

Mr. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the first bill on the program is No. 1755. We sent out a letter which is in the hands of every member of the House explaining these bills and the object of them. However on page 6 of file folio 3385 is the only amendment to this bill. At the present time boroughs are charged ten per cent of the cost of the State highways going through the boroughs. This bill amends the law that the State pays one hundred per cent instead of ninety per cent. Is that satisfactory to the gentleman?

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Baldrige,

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1283, entitled:

An Act providing for the Commonwealth to share in the cost of maintaining township reward roads.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Griffith, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GRIFFITH. I will.

Mr. HERMANSEN. I would like to know if this series of legislation is consistent with the present revenue that is going into the highways. Has that been taken into consideration or is it intended to increase the revenue in order to carry out the provisions of these bills?

Mr. GRIFFITH. Please repeat that question.

Mr. HERMANSEN. I would like to know if this series of legislation is consistent with the present revenue that is going into the highways? Or is it the intention that the revenue must be increased to carry out the provisions of these seven bills?

Mr. GRIFFITH. The seven bills? Or the nine bills?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Nine, is it. Well, this bill then, it would take additional revenue over that which we have at the present time?

Mr. GRIFFITH. The whole program would take additional revenue over that which we have at the present time.

Mr. HERMANSEN. It is going to increase it.

Mr. GRIFFITH. It will take additional revenue.

Mr. HERMANSEN. How much of an increase will be required to carry out the provisions of this bill?

Mr. GRIFFITH. In this present bill, probably $400,000.00 in the biennium.

Mr. HERMANSEN. If the nine of them were passed could you give me an idea of what it would be?

Mr. FLYNN. If the gentleman from Indiana will yield perhaps I can answer that question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana yield to the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn.

Mr. GRIFFITH. I will.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I have been giving some time to assisting in formulating this program. While I am not a member of the committee on highways, yet I am very much interested in the subject we have here before us to-night, a series of bills which are on special order. Many of these bills are entirely new proposals so far as the matter of highway maintenance and construction is concerned. The bill under discussion is one which would provide for the State Highway Department to take over all of the State-aid roads for maintenance, repairs and so forth. It would entail an expense for the biennium of four hundred and twelve thousand dollars. The next bill on the calendar is one which provides for the Commonwealth to share in the cost of maintaining township reward roads. That is a new proposition, and would require an additional expense of five hundred thousand dollars for the biennium. The next act is one which provides for assistance by the Commonwealth in the improvement, reconstruction and maintenance of certain streets and highways in cities of the second class—second class A, and third class, and that bill, 1148, both relate to the same subject, that for the State to render assistance in the maintenance of highways that passed through cities, all except the city of the first class, and that would involve two million dollars for the next biennium. The next bill, at the top of page 3, which sets up a program for the State to construct the mileage now on the State program does not entail any additional expense, it merely allocates the money to be used for construction for a certain definite purpose so that every county in the Commonwealth would get its proportionate share of the money to be expended in the next four years. That does not require or does not call for any additional expense. The next bill, 1782, is an act to authorize the use of certain moneys for certain purposes in counties of the first class. That takes care of Philadelphia's share in the motor license fund, and it would amount to $750,000 for the biennium. That is a $250,000 increase. They now receive $500,000. The next act, 1548, is one which provides for an additional township reward. At the present time there is a definite sum appropriated to the highway department to pay to the townships on the basis of 50-50 for the improvement of the dirt roads of the townships. This increases the township reward $3,000,000 for the biennium, raising it from $3,000,000 to $6,000,000. The next is a companion bill to House Bill 314. The next is the bridge bill which provides that all of the bridges on the State highway system shall be taken over for construction and maintenance by the State Highway Department. That involves an additional expense of something more than $6,000,000. This is spread over a period of ten years, and will require $2,000,000 for the coming biennium.

Now, Mr. Speaker, that is the program which is presented to this Legislature by its committee of highways. I would say for this program that it is the most constructive, the most generous, the most beneficial program of highway construction that was ever offered in this or any other State. It will involve an additional total expenditure over and above what the department has heretofore expended of $13,000,000 for the biennium, and it is certainly worth every cent of that cost. There is not a member of this House but what, if he votes for this program, can go back to his constituents and say "I have brought you something back from this Legislature that is going to be a benefit to the people of our district." The cost in comparison with the benefits is very small. It carries out the program and carries out the recommendation made by the Governor of this Commonwealth in his message at the opening of this session. In the first place the program of road construction has shifted from one or two highway routes to one that is going to be beneficial to the small districts, the townships and smaller boroughs of our Commonwealth. We are at least in the way of digging these country districts out of the mud. We are in the way of giving the citizens in those districts a definite advantage in maintaining the highway system through their limits. We are in the way of taking these country districts out of the mud and giving the cities assistance they never had before from the Highway Department in maintaining the system through their limits. We are going to give Philadelphia a very modest sum and they are generous enough to come here to-night and give us members from the country their solid support in putting this program over. I say if there is any membership in this House that is showing a spirit of broadminded generosity in helping the plans of the State with this program it is the members from the first class city, and I want to bear testimony here to-night that the members of this Legislature are going to show their appreciation to Philadelphia when the opportunity arises. We have a Highway Department that we can all say is not political. It is administered with the idea singly of giving Pennsylvania a first class highway system, and it has done just that. Now that department is organized to carry on the constructive program we have here to-night and they are offering you whatever help, if any, is needed to carry out this program provided it is adopted by the Legislature. This is not a program that has been formulated by any other agency than this Legislature; it is their program. It is one that we can be proud of, it is adopted by the Legislature. This is not a program that Legislature is over it will be remembered above all things by the adoption of the program that is before us here to-night.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am willing to agree that this is a liberal program so far as the construction of the highways is concerned, but there is a question in my mind as to whether or not this body should expend all its energy in considering highways. Coming from the anthracite region I am interested in other bills as well as highway bills. In working on the repeal of the anthracite tax we have continually been reminded that revenue is necessary. Now I don't know whether the roads would have the first or secondary place. Now in further consideration of it we understand there is to be put across a four cent gasoline tax, and as a representative of my constituents I must go on record as being against that legislation because our people feel they are over-taxed at the present time; and personally I feel this increased taxation is a dangerous way to carry on. It might react in an uncomfortable way in a year or two from now. I want to be consistent in voting on these measures, and that is the reason I ask if it is an increase of revenue, and if that is contemplated I want to go on record as being opposed to it.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am going to be consistent on my vote on these bills. Those of you who were here two years ago heard the statement on the floor of this House in regard to the highway department when they asked for the two cent tax to be a permanent tax and the three cent tax to be a temporary. They said if they got that they would have enough revenue to complete their highway system as contemplated at that time without asking for any more. I am satisfied with the highway department and with the progress they have made in fifteen years. They are going fast enough. Where are the people going to get off who have to pay these bills. If you go to the Governor with a repeal bill he says: "I can't afford to lose the revenue," Although they showed at the beginning of the session a big surplus they are going to spend it in two years then what are we going to do? It is time for you people to stop and consider what you are doing here tonight. Thirteen millions more added to the taxes of this state for highways! Where are you going to get the money? I have had letter after letter and telegram after telegram, more than I have ever had before, insisting on my being against any increased taxation. I ask you to vote no. Leave the highway department as it has been. They have made enough progress; they have enough money; and we have enough taxes now.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, the statement has been made that this incurs an additional revenue required to carry on this program. Where is that revenue supposed to come from?

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, there is $13,000,000 additional revenue involved in this program that can be raised in any one of several ways. We have already passed through the House the motor code which will account for approximately $4,500,000 or $5,000,000 of the $13,000,000 needed; that would leave approximately $8,000,000 to be raised. That $8,000,000 could be raised by an additional cent on gas for a period of one year. I am only pointing out a possibility.

Mr. HOWE. I would like to ask the gentleman if there is any other way to raise this money if there is not an additional cent granted on the gasoline tax?

Mr. FLYNN. Oh yes, there would be other ways, provided the funds are available, the money could be appropriated out of the general fund. I have no program, Mr. Speaker, I want to be perfectly frank with the members of the House. I have no program for raising this $8,000,000. That is all going to be submitted to the judgment of the members of this House. This whole program is open and above board. We have said frankly how much money is involved in the passage of this entire program by the Legislature and how that money is going to be raised is going to be just as much within the power of the gentleman from Allegheny as it is in mine. There is no program laid down.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I anticipate that there will be a request to pass an additional cent on the gas tax making a four cent tax on gasoline and the question that arises in my mind is this: The program is all right, it is a wonderful program, but if there is no other way to put this program across but by adding an additional cent tax on gasoline, I am afraid the best thing the members can do is to vote the program down.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, may I answer that question? This program, not any one bill particularly is dependent on any other bill. Perhaps the largest item of expense in this entire program is the bill which would take over the bridges on the highway. Now there are some bills in combination that would perhaps obviate, would make it unnecessary rather, to raise additional revenue. I am not here tonight to pass on the subject as to what this Legislature should do in that respect. I am strongly advocating the passage of this series of bills and I again proclaim it one of the most constructive and progressive programs that this Legislature or any other has ever adopted on the subject of highway improvement.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, as a matter of information I desire to know, because none of the gentlmen have stated, if the House should not see fit to give the Highway Department any additional revenue could any of this program or series of bills be adapted to meet the revenues that we now have available?

Mr. FLYNN. I would say Mr. Speaker that the program as outlined here tonight in my best judgment and opinion involves an expense of $13,000,000 over and above what has been estimated as the revenue for the coming biennium; if that answers the gentleman from York.

Mr. SPANGLER. My thought was that in the event that the House should refuse to pass additional revenue to carry these various measures into effect, that in all probability the members of the Committee on Highways could so reduce the appropriation carried by the several bills so as to carry out the main purpose of the bill or bills on a smaller scale.

Mr. FLYNN. I would say perhaps that would not be feasible, that some of the items of this program would have to be omitted entirely. In other words, if the state takes over the construction and maintenance of the bridges, that is going to involve a certain very definite sum of money for the next biennium; and that is true of all these projects. Now I will say that some of these things, perhaps any one of them, could be dropped from the program if the money was not forthcoming to finance them.

Mr. SPANGLER. Then it is the idea of the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, to consider them all; to pass these bills as a series.

Mr. FLYNN. Yes.

Mr. SPANGLER. Nothwithstanding the fact that certain members may have scruples against supporting these bills for fear they might be forced to vote for additional revenue in the shape of a four cent tax on gasoline.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I do not see how voting for these bills would compel any member to vote for some other bill involving an increase in taxation. I do say that the members are voting for this program with their eyes open, they know absolutely what it is going to cost

Mr. HERMANSEN. I think that the people have spoken at the last election. They went on record in strong numbers opposed to a measure that would have provided new roads for them, and if we should now enact legislation that at some future date would increase the revenue, I think we would be betraying the faith that the people put in us, and I feel that I owe it to my people, the people whom I represent, to vote consistently on legislation of this nature. We cannot consistently say after voting for these bills that we are not going to provide the necessary revenue. Therefore, I say it would be a violation of democracy to do anything at this session of the legislation that would increase the revenue contrary to the wishes of the people at home. I wish the members would keep that in mind in voting on it.

Mr. FLYNN. May I say in reply to the gentleman from Luzerne that the House has already voted almost one-half of the additional revenue necessary to carry out this program.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House in answer to the suggestion of the gentleman from York, Mr. Spangler, when he asked the question of the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, if this program could not be carried through and if there was not sufficient revenue raised, whether the Committee on Roads could change that situation. If any one of you think that this program can be carried out without an amendment to these measures they are badly fooled. What right has any committee of this House to upset the decisions of this House and of the Senate? If this bill goes through they cannot change the program without an amendment being put through this House. If we are going ahead and spending more money tonight than we have in sight for the next two years, where are we going to get to? Now we all know the uproar there was about this state being in the hole several years ago and the boasting that there was at the beginning of this session of the wonderful financial condition this state was in: the best that it had ever been. We were cautioned by the Governor in his inaugural message to watch the expenditure of money and not to put the state back into the situation it was in three or four years ago. Stop and consider what you are doing. I don't want to take up too much of your time but I don't believe we are ready to assume this program. If we had the money I would say "Amen" and vote for it, but we don't have the money, and so I say vote the whole program down.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. With relation to this program, which is on special order, and of which you have passed several bills, I wish to say that the program is a program put together by this Legislature in an attempt to present a definite, constructive program for the first time in many years. While the program is a legislative program in a true sense, it has also been thoroughly discussed with the Governor and with the party leaders. It has their endorsement. As to the question which has been raised here tonight regarding its connection with additional revenue measures, I can only say personally that the facts and figures relating to the revenues available to the Department of Highways are now being subjected to the closest scrutiny. No increase in taxes beyond what you have already voted will be requested unless absolutely necessary to maintain the present program and to make possible benefits to our Commonwealth which will be derived from this program before you. I want to say also that while I recognize the serious responsibility which falls upon a member of the Legislature in creating an obligation without providing the necessary revenue, that in this case I believe we are thoroughly justified in reserving our liberty of action. We are now voting on whether or not we approve this program, the program which has been worked out since the very earliest days of the session and which as I say is the administration and organization program which is offered to the Legislature for its consideration. Your consideration of additional revenue will be a matter for your action when it appears on the floor of the House. At the present time, as the gentleman from Elk stated, it appears that this program involves an additional expendture of $13,000,000. The question of the $8,000,000 which now appears to be required to take care of this program in its entirety, in every single feature of it, and the program as a whole, is one which I believe can be determined on its merits by the members of the House without involving it in the question before the House tonight and I ask your approval of the entire program.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I am in favor of the passage of all the bills that are on special order on tonight's calendar, representing as they do the well thought out efforts of the members of the Committee on Public Roads. These bills represent a program that to my mind is the most comprehensive and constructive road program since the enactment of the Sproul Highway Act in 1911. They are not in the interest of any one, two or three counties, but they are in the interest of the sixty-seven counties of the State, every one of them sharing in the benefits that would come from their enactment. I am pleased to say that they meet with the approval of the administration and of many of the Republican leaders of the State. As to an increase in the revenues of the State, I am frank to say that I am in doubt. The question of revenue is a debatable one. One of the fiscal officers of the State assures me that revenue is in sight sufficient to take care of the provisions of these bills, and I sincerely hope he is right in his estimates.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I think I can give you some information that will convince you this bill should go through. I am convinced from a very careful study of a thoughful study of the revenue situation that we have plenty of money to carry through this program and these additional bills that will be of advantage to us. Now just in order to make it understood, we don't pay enough attention to the expenditures that are passed or that go towards the roads. The Highway Department expects to spend over $9,000,000 for salaries and over $15,000,000 for wages; they expect to pay out over $9,000,000 for equipment, that includes the purchases, the maintenance and the operations and some other items. They also expect to expend about $60,000,000 for road construction. That road construction comprises 505 miles of replacement and 701 miles of new construction. They don't need at this time to spend so much money on main highways and State highways. As I have said here before we ought to vote some of our money, some of this $60,000,000, at least half of it towards the township roads. We can do that with this program and also with another bill I am going to try to add to it. Now if the committee or subcommittee, who planned this program had gone a little further into the financial affairs of the Highway Department they would have seen where they could have cut off a considerable amount of money that would likely give us enough money to do everything we want to do and go home feeling good. Now I am going to support all of these measures and I want the members to do it. At the same time I must say I am disappointed to learn there is $13,00,000 additional needed. I doubt it very much. If it does I think I will have a bill in here later that will show you the way whereby we can get all the money we want and have some to spare. I did not intend to say a word here tonight. I intended to let these bills go along peacefully but I finally concluded to take part in the commotion. As I started to say I want to inform you about the finances. I don't do this to condemn or criticize the Highway Department for I do think we have a very excellent Highway Department, but I also think the Highway Department is not controlled enough by us and if we go over that budget and examine it carefully and thoughtfully, especially the report of the expenditures, we would see several places that would give us considerable money and money sufficient to provide for all our needs. What many people want are roads and we could get them and at the same time we should not go beyond our present income and that is $128,000,000 coming in from the motor fund and $19,000,000 they want to hold over. I object to that holding over business because I think the Highway Department should not attempt to make contracts for roads beyond the year or beyond the biennium. I notice in the report that it is stated that $40,000,000 was received from June 1, 1928 to December 31, 1928. If that is not an adequate sum that comes in let them take part of that, because it belongs to the biennium. I want to do the best I can to inform you on something, and I hope I have given you some information.

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I don't believe the gentleman from Beaver and myself are very far apart. He seems to be laboring under the impression that I am guaranteeing that this $13,000,000 is not some place in sight. I am not guaranteeing that that is the case. I would not say that that $13,000,000 could not be saved by curtailing some part of the Highway program and that is the question that will come up when and if it is necessary for you to vote additional revenue.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Spangler, Haines, Storb, Yeagel, Michel, McCann, Gelnett, Peters, Harding, Chas. C. A. Baldi, Jr., Jos. F. M. Baldi, 2nd., Witherspoon, Holmes, Marcus, Sullivan, Cook, Ederer, Mrs. Kirkbride, Messrs. Metzinger, Voltz, Fockler and others.

BILL ON THIRD RADING (SPECIAL ORDER).

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1482, as follows:

An Act adopting a program for the completion of the improvement of the State highways of the Commonwealth suspending in part State-aid highways construction authorizing counties boroughs towns and townships to expend moneys and to incur indebtedness and requiring certain moneys of the Motor License Fund to be expended as herein provided

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That out of the moneys in the Motor License Fund of the Commonwealth available in any fiscal biennium for the construction and improvement of State highways and bridges on State highways such sum as shall be specified by the General Assembly shall hereafter be apportioned by the Department of Highways for expenditure in the several counties of this Commonwealth in the ratio that the unimproved mileage of State highways in any county bears to the total unimproved mileage of State highways in the Commonwealth but the amount to be allocated for expenditure in any county shall not be more than six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) or less than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in any fiscal biennium and if the allocation above provided for allows to any county an amount in excess of the maximum herein permitted then the amount representing the excess over the maximum shall be deducted in each such case and shall be credited to the counties which by the aforesaid allocation would receive less than the minimum allotment but only to the extent necessary to give each of such counties the minimum allotment of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) If after such deductions from the allotments exceeding the maximum and credits to the counties below the minimum any moneys remain unallocated the same shall again be reallocated to the several counties (excepting those having a maximum allotment) on the ratio of unimproved mileage as first provided in this section

The moneys thus available for expenditure in any county shall be expended by the Department of Highways for State highway and bridge construction and improvement in boroughs towns and townships on any State highway whether the same be designated as a primary State highway or secondary State highway without any assistance whatsoever from the county or any borough town or township any law to the contrary notwithstanding

Section 2 Any county borough town or township shall have power to enter into contracts with the Department of Highways and therein to agree to contribute moneys to the Department for the construction and improvement of mileage additional to that which can be improved in such county from Commonwealth moneys and for such purpose any county borough town or township may incur or increase its indebtedness within the limits permitted by the Constitution of the Commonwealth

Section 3 Before letting contracts for the construction and improvement of State highways and bridges in any county the Department of Highways shall consult the county commissioners and ascertain their preference as to the State highways and bridges or sections of State highways which are to be constructed and improved by the use of the moneys allocated for expenditure in such county and in this act provided and the county commissioners shall indicate prior to June first of each year their first second and third choices and the Department of Highways may select the State highways bridges or sections of State highways to be improved in such county from such choices or in its discretion may select other State highways bridges or sections in such county for improvement Provided That where the Department of Highways has heretofore prepared plans and was about to let contracts for the improvement of any State highway or section thereof in any county the Department may proceed with such improvement but no such improvement requiring moneys in excess of the amount allocated to the county shall be made from moneys allocated to other counties under the provisions of this act

Section 4 No portion of the moneys specifically required in any fiscal biennium to be used for the construction and improvement of State highways and bridges under the provisions of this act shall be used for reconstruction resurfacing widening or maintenance of State highways heretofore or hereafter improved but shall be devoted entirely to new construction Provided however That the paving of a State highway heretofore graded but not otherwise improved shall be considered new construction and a new improvement

Section 5 Pending the improvement of the State highway system and bridges thereon no moneys shall be expended by the Department of Highways out of the Motor License Fund in any county of this Commonwealth for the construction and improvement of State highways in the manner provided by the laws of the Commonwealth for the improvement of State-aid highways (saving contracts in existence at the time this act becomes effective) but nothing contained in this act shall prohibit the construction of State-aid highways not on the State highway system if moneys are specifically appropriated from the Motor License Fund for such purposes

Section 6 The sum of twenty-three million five hundred thousand dollars ($23,500,000) out of moneys in the Motor License Fund shall be allocated by the Department of Highways among the counties for the construction and improvement of State highways and bridges in accordance with this act during the two fiscal years beginning June first one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRAHAM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHEELER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRAHAM. I would like to interrogate the sponsor, more for my own information, than any opposition I may have to the bill. Do I understand this bill rightly—Do I interpret it rightly? The allocation of money is on the basis of the miles of dirt roads in the county in proportion to the dirt roads of the State? Am I right?

Mr. WHEELER. The gentleman is informed that the basis of allocation contained in this bill is the ratio of unimproved State roads in the county to the mileage unimproved on the State highways in the Commonwealth. It affects only the State highway system. It does, however, leave a considerable surplus for emergency projects and for State one-hundred-per-cent construction in addition to the appropriation contained in this bill.

Mr. BRAHAM. If I interpret it rightly then the counties who are bonded at the present time to their extremity and who have built their roads perhaps will receive four or five miles, such as my own county and my neighboring county of Allegheny, would receive possibly four or five miles out of this twenty three million dollars, while some of the other counties would receive possibly fourteen miles. Am I right?

Mr. WHEELER. The gentleman is informed his figures are not exactly correct. A minimum limit is set in this bill of two hundred thousand dollars. Even in counties which have only twelve miles of unimproved State highway, under a rigid application of this proposition, it would allow them less than one hundred thousand dollars, but those counties have the minimum limit of two hundred thousand dollars. In other counties which would be entitled under a rigid application of this ratio of eight hundred thousand dollars, and in the case of one county a million dollars, because of the fact the State highway system is so far behind in road improvements, these counties will receive only a maximum of six hundred thousand dollars. The gentleman is further informed that the proportion or allocation contained in this bill for Allegheny County is considerably larger than the amount that they received in the last biennium from both sources, namely, State and special-aid.

Mr. BRAHAM. Has the sponsor of this bill been able to ascertain whether or not the counties that receive these large allocations are bonded in the same proportion that the counties who receive the small amounts are?

Mr. WHELER. The gentleman is informed that some counties that would receive the maximum of six hundred thousand dollars are now bonded to the limit.

Mr. BRAHAM. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—2.

Baldrige,
Hermansen,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative,

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 38 of today's calendar, House Bill No. 695, file folio 3349, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Turner.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 695, entitled:

An Act to amend section four of the act approved the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, (P. L. 67), entitled "An act regulating the practice, bail, costs and fees on appeals to the Supreme Court and Superior Court" as amended fixing the time in which appeals may be allowed from sentences and orders of the courts of quarter sessions and oyer and terminer

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Am I correct in my understanding that the gentleman from Delaware introduced this bill by request?

Mr. TURNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am going to ask you to vote "no" on this bill and with your permission will state briefly my reasons for making that request.

This bill reduces the time of appeal in criminal cases from forty-five to thirty days. The original time of appeal dating some years back was six months and I believe in 1927, or perhaps sooner than that, it was reduced to three months, and in 1927 this Legislature reduced the time for appeal to forty-five days. Members of the House, it seems to me that that is not enough time. Very often in criminal cases the record of the case does not come to counsel for the defendant until two weeks and upward after the final disposition of the case by the lower court. A lawyer should properly review the record in a case before taking an appeal and if you reduce the time to thirty days you will necessarily prevent him from giving the question the proper consideration. There can be no question but what a lawyer should thoroughly review the record before entering an appeal, and the mere argument that you will speed justice by fifteen days, I don't think is a proper argument. If the defendant is out on bail it makes no difference to him and if he is in custody and is not allowed bail the Commonwealth is not prejudiced, because during the forty-five days he is still incarcerated. Even though this bill is a Crimes Commission bill, and Mr. Turner will probably tell you he has introduced this bill at their request, I want to say I think it is a bad piece of legislation and I think it is unfair to the people who are brought to trial. I ask you to give proper consideration to this matter and vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate Mr. Witkin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WITKIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Is it not possible for you to take an appeal in a criminal case without a record?

Mr. WITKIN. It is possible. The use of the word "possible" is a rather difficult word to permit a negative answer to your question. It is certainly possible to take an appeal without a record but I take it that a lawyer who has a case before a court and thinks an appeal should be taken, cannot properly determine whether or not the appeal should be taken until he has read the record. If you want to create a great number of appeals in a great number of crimnial cases, simply make a motion at the consummation of the trial in a criminal case and take an appeal in order to get in within the time limit, then I say it is possible. If on the other hand an appeal should be taken properly then I think it is not possible without the record. Does that answer the genleman's question?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Is it not a fact that when you make a motion for a new trial before the Judge who may have tried the case, that you file your exceptions and that those exceptions are either sustained or refused by the court, and if they are refused by the court is it not a matter of fact that you note the exceptions at the time?

Mr. WITKIN. That is not so. Often times judges refuse a motion for a new trial immediately after the trial on the same day that the verdict is rendered. In other words, the court does not have to allow you five days to permit you file exceptions. Under this act you have to take an appeal within thirty days from the date of the verdict irrespective of whether the record has come down or the notes of the trial have been transcribed or not.

Mr. STADTLANDER. You cannot take an appeal without your record?

Mr. WITKIN. Are you asking a question or speaking a fact?

Mr. STADTLANDER. I am asking a question. Cannot you take an appeal without the record?

Mr. WITKIN. You can file an appeal without the record but it is not a proper practice and is not in keeping with the proper duty of a lawyer under any circumstances.

Mr. TURNER. While I introduced this bill by request, it seems to me only fair that I should say to the members of the House that this is one of the series of bills which were prepared and offered to the Legislature as the result of the study of the Crimes Commission. It was their feeling that one of the things that was necessary in our courts to bring about a better condition was to reduce the period of time for appeals. While the time is short they thought it should be reduced from forty-five to thirty days, which this bill would do.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this same bill was before us in 1927. At that time we considered it very carefully and reduced the time for appeal from three months to forty-five days and it seemed to me at that time that forty-five days was a very short time for a defendant to appeal in. Now they come in here this session and they want it reduced from forty-five days to thirty days. I think thirty days is entirely too short and I will tell you my reasons why.

If a criminal case lasts a week or two weeks in the trial there are very few stenographers at the end of that period or even within two or three weeks after the trial who can furnish you with a complete stenographic record. Unless you have a complete stenographic record to review, you don't know whether you are going to appeal or not. If you pass this bill, then every lawyer representing a defendant in the criminal court without having a record will run right around to the Supreme Court and pay twelve or fifteen dollars and take out an appeal, whether he wants it or not. Now there is another reason. The average man in criminal court when he is tried is not always prepared with money to take an appeal. Justice requires that the poor shall have an equal right with the wealthy to appeal and if the poor man wants to appeal, he ought to have a little time to get his money together to pay for his appeal and to pay his numerous expenses to bring an appeal. How forty-five days can injure the Commonwealth I fail to understand because most men when they are convicted, as you have seen in a case recently, if convicted and have appealed, they still remain in jail, so the man that is remaining in jail, why should he not have the right to appeal when his family is able to raise the money to pay for that appeal.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ederer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDERER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DONNELL. Will the gentleman kindly explain what this bill will do if it is enacted into law?

Mr. EDERER. This bill changes and revises our present game code in accordance with the wishes of the commissioners and also the various sporting associations and hunting associations throughout the state.

This bill in the first part provides that the Board must on or before May 15th make public announcement and publish in the newspapers any anticipated change in the seasons or bag limits for the game season. It further provides that on petition of at least twenty-five signers opposing any change, within fifteen days of the above notice, a hearing must be given the petitioners on or before the first Thursday of July, and the board must then within ten days given final decision and notify the petitioners when if any change is made. This is merely to prevent a recurrence of the conditions such as we had this past fall with reference to misunderstandings, and clarifies the game code.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the sponsor of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDERER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DAVIS. Is it the understanding of the sponsor that after twenty-five citizens have petitioned for a hearing that that hearing must be held in Harrisburg?

Mr. EDERER. Yes.

Mr. DAVIS. Is it the idea of the sponsor that the only place in the state that you can taken an appeal is in Dauphin County?

Mr. EDERER. The bill provides that that is the only place that you can take an appeal, and it so recites, making it possible for the game commissioners to listen to all appeals within the period of time given for appeals.

Mr. DAVIS. The bill sets forth that the Judge shall render his decision on or before a certain time. How does the sponsor propose to enforce that regulation?

Mr. EDERER . I cannot answer that question.

Mr. DAVIS. The bill proposes that the bill shall not be a supersedeas. Is that right?

Mr. EDERER. I cannot answer that question.

Mr. DAVIS. Can there be an appeal taken from the Dauphin County courts to a higher court?

Mr. EDERER. I don't see where the bill provides that he cannot appeal to a higher court.

Mr. DAVIS. Referring to the latter part of this bill and the provision there, if I understand it correctly, it provides that the Board by resolution may change any law now existing as regards the open seasons, bag limits, and so forth. In other words, the laws that we specifically pass in this Legislature may be changed by the Commission. Is that right?

Mr. EDERER. The Board at the present time has that power. At the present time they regulate the seasons and the bag limits, and this bill does not change the status of the Board but merely clarifies their powers.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I do not want anyone to feel I have a grudge against the Game Commission. I appreciate the work they have done and I also feel that if their work is to be effective that they must have the cooperation of the general citizenry of the Commonwealth, and the people who hunt. This Commission is a little different from some others who deal with private interests and private problems. In this case if twenty-five citizens petition they can come to Harrisburg and have a hearing. That entails a great deal of expense. These matters are of vital interest to a great many people. I know of hearings attended by as high as five hundred, six hundred and up to seven hundred people. The Game Commission can attend a hearing and take its testimony very easily. There are only two or three and at most four or five members moving about. Many of the people of this Commonwealth cannot come down here to testify. It seems to me it is only reasonable, especially when there is a great interest shown, that the Game Commission should come to the county where the question is brought up. Another thing is in regard to not making this a supersedeas after the objection has been made. I cannot see what real reason there is back of that. If the Game Commission has made a mistake, then the season passes by before the decision is reached and they can open it up next season or declare a special season, and if this is not made a supersedeas, they open the season and kill the game and the court says the Commission has made a mistake but the damage has been done. I believe that the members, and especially the attorneys in this House, know you cannot limit the time in which a Judge shall render his decision. We have all seen too many instances where the circumstances and the rush of work have resulted in a late decision. This is especially true as far as this bill is concerned, as there is has no plan to compel the rendering of a decision on time. Therefore, in view of this, I believe that this bill as it now stands, that it is in the interests of the people, and those of us who represent the people throughout the Commonwealth who want to hunt, to vote against this bill.

Mr. EDERER. This bill was drawn by Mr. Creveling who has drawn all of our past game codes and it is heartily endorsed by our game associations, and I thing I am justified in asking the members to vote "aye."
